

This shit is a waste of my god damn time.

I don't care what you have to say.

You don't care what I have to say.

The zoo may be scary to you; it is freedom to me.

There are no rules here and I thrive in chaos.

These fuckers above us think they own the place.

But when I am out of here, they will pay.

Just like all the men and women in my enclosure.

Especially those fuckers the Guardians.

And that little bitch Priya and her whole group.

They think they are better than ME?

Just wait and see what I can do.
